

2021

ANNUAL REPORT

Maritime Labour Act

Report 2021

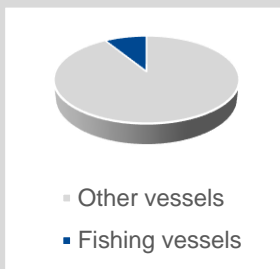

according section 7 (5) SeearbeitsüberprüfungsVO

The Maritime Labour Act sets out comprehensive and binding regulations for the fulfillment and enforcement of the working and living conditions of crew members on board of ships under the German flag. The annual report summarizes the activities of the Ship Safety Division in accordance with the Maritime Labour Act.

217

inspections were carried out on ships under German flag.

- 8 Interim
- 6 Initial
- 91 Intermediate
- 28 Renewal
- 2 Additional
- 82 Inspections of ships not obliged for certification

85

deficiencies were noted by inspectors of the Ship Safety Division.

Main findings in % 0

detention caused by MLC deficiencies (PSC on German flag vessels).

33

MLC deficiencies noted by port states (PSC on German flag vessels).

7

Recognized Organizations (RO)

- American Bureau of Shipping (ABS)
- Bureau Veritas (BV)
- DNV
- Lloyd`s Register of Shipping (LR)
- Nippon Kaiji Kyokai (ClassNK)
- Registro Italiano Navale (RINA)
- Russian Maritime Register of Shipping (RS)

Owners can request these RO's to carry out the MLC inspection on ships which are subject to the MLC certification system.

82

private recruitment agencies are registered.

The Ship Safety Division is responsible for the approval of private recruitment agencies for seafarers (agents) based in Germany. As part of the authorization procedure, the conditions of the agencies are checked and certificates issued.

26

private recruitment agencies were certified or renewed for the year 2021.

39

MLC inspectors of the Ship Safety Division carry out inspections worldwide.

Certificates

Maritime labor certificates and fisheries labor certificates will be issued electronically from the next renewal inspection (or earlier at the request of the shipowner) and will henceforth also be endorsed electronically.

Corona

Seafarers and shipping companies are supported in dealing with the corona pandemic. For this purpose, continuously updated procedures and information are provided as FAQs at www.deutsche-flagge.de and measures for repatriation and SEA are dealt with.

0

MLC relevant circular letter was issued.

3

complaints

were submitted to the DS and analysed. Based on section 128 (7) of the Maritime Labour Act the Ship Safety Division has to ensure that complaints of crew members are appropriately received and analysed.